WASHINGTON- Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) issued the following statement on the Inauguration of President Barack Obama:

"Today is a historic moment for our country that we can all be proud of. President Obama led an extraordinary campaign based on hope and change. As your Congressman I pledge to work with him to solve the many problems facing our country."

-30-