GOP Rep. Terry: No more 'finesse' from Congress if Obama rejects pipeline

By Ben Geman - 01/16/12 11:31 AM ET

A leading House GOP advocate of the Keystone XL oil sands pipeline wants Republicans to force approval of the project if President Obama denies a permit in the coming weeks.

Rep. Lee Terry (R-Neb.) told The Omaha World-Herald that House lawmakers should discuss bringing out the big guns, legislatively speaking, in Energy and Commerce Committee talks about the matter this week.

Click here for full article.