Nebraska Rep. Lee Terry appointed to bipartisan cybersecurity working group

OMAHA, Neb. — Rep. Lee Terry has been appointed to co-head a bipartisan House Communications and Technology Cybersecurity Working Group.

The Nebraska Republican was appointed by Oregon Rep. Greg Walden , chairman of the House Communications and Technology Subcommittee.

Click here for full article.