

WASHINGTON, DC – Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) released the following statement today in response to Nebraska Governor Heineman approving the revised Keystone XL pipeline route through Nebraska:

“I am pleased Governor Heineman approved the Keystone XL pipeline based on the report which showed minimal environmental impact while having a substantial economic benefit to Nebraska.”