

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Representative Lee Terry (NE-02) today returned to Washington, D.C. for Congressional votes. Although Congressman Terry will not be in attendance for tomorrow's speech in South Omaha by President George W. Bush, Terry welcomes President Bush back to Nebraska's Second Congressional District.

"President Bush is always welcome in Nebraska , especially when he comes to talk about important national issues like immigration reform. I have told the President that I have differences with his proposal, but many of us in Congress are willing to work with the President to find acceptable middle ground."

The U.S. House of Representative will be considering several major appropriation bills this week, starting tonight with the Homeland Security Appropriations Act for Fiscal Year 2007.
