

Washington -

Congressman Lee Terry will be hosting an emergency preparedness conference with representatives from local, state, and federal agencies to provide resources and information about potential ramifications from Missouri River flooding this Saturday.

The conference will take place from 2:00-4:00 p.m. at the Lake Pointe Building (2401 Lake Street) on July 9. The conference is open to the public and businesses are encouraged to attend.

Each agency will give a brief overview and will then be available for consultation by the public. A complete list of agencies is below:

- Douglas County Emergency Management Agency
- Nebraska Emergency Management Agency
- Federal Emergency Management Agency
- Omaha Public Power District
- U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
- Small Business Administration
- United States Department of Agriculture
