

WASHINGTON- Congressman Lee Terry issued the following statement in honor of Peace Officers Memorial Day, Saturday, May 15, 2010:

"Today and every day we should thank members of our law enforcement who bravely and honorably protect and serve the citizens of our great state," said Congressman Terry. "We should also never forget the officers who paid the ultimate sacrifice to keep our cities and residents safe. It is difficult to accept the loss of such heroic law enforcement officers, but it is days like today we ensure they will never be forgotten."
