

WASHINGTON- As healthcare reform moves to the top of the agenda in Congress, Nebraska Congressman Lee Terry will be hosting a Doctors Town Hall to bring together national and local individuals to discuss the future of the U.S. health care system. The event will take place at 1pm at the Alegent Health Foundation The McAuley Center at 12809 West Dodge Road.

"In the coming months Congress will undertake comprehensive health care reform," said Congressman Terry. "Access and affordability are two key components that must be addressed. It is important that we have an open and honest discussion to find the best possible solutions to the future of healthcare."

Panelists include:

- Congressman Lee Terry, Representing the 2nd District of Nebraska. Serves on the House Energy and Commerce Committee.
- Congressman Dr. Michael Burgess, Representing 26th District of Texas. Serves on the House Energy and Commerce Committee and three of its subcommittees: Health Care, Energy & Environment, and Oversight & Investigations; and he recently founded and is Chairman of the House Health Care Caucus
- Wayne Sensor, President & CEO of Alegent Health
- Dr. Richard O'Brian, University Professor, Center for Health Policy & Ethics at Creighton University.
