

WASHINGTON- Today Congressman Lee Terry was officially sworn-in to serve his 6th term as Congressman for the 2nd

District of Nebraska. Congressman Terry is the senior member of the Nebraska delegation of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Congressman Terry currently sits on one of the most important and influential committees in Congress, the House Energy and Commerce Committee. He was first elected in 1998.

"Serving the people is what I enjoy most about my job," said Congressman Terry. "From day one, I made a commitment to work for the constituents of the 2nd District and the entire state of Nebraska. That is still my number one priority. It is a privilege to serve in the U.S. House of Representatives and I am grateful to the people of the 2nd District who have given me the opportunity to keep doing so."
