

WASHINGTON- Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) spoke on the House floor today honoring the 40th Anniversary of the Special Olympics.

"The individuals who participate in Special Olympics are an inspiration to us all. Athletes, parents, coaches and volunteers should be proud of the years of competition Special Olympics has provided to millions of athletes around the world. The motto of Special Olympics is 'Let me win. But if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt', these are words we should all live by. I am thrilled that the 2010 Special Olympics USA National games will be held in Omaha and Lincoln," said Congressman Terry.
