

WASHINGTON- Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) today announced Brad Schweer of Omaha, NE as his new Legislative Director. Schweer, who spent the last two years as a Legislative Assistant, was promoted to Legislative Director in May. Schweer is based in Congressman Terry's Washington, D.C. office.

"Brad is a very serious and dedicated professional. Over the years, Brad has proven himself to be a leader and always goes the extra mile on every project he is involved in. He has extensive knowledge of how the House of Representatives works and Nebraska politics and I am proud to have him as my Legislative Director," said Congressman Terry.

Schweer graduated from the Nebraska Wesleyan University. Schweer started out as an intern for Congressman Terry in 2004, then hired as a Staff Assistant and most recently held the position of Legislative Assistant handling telecom issues.

