

WASHINGTON - Congressman Lee Terry (R-NE) today announced Lisa Ellis of Omaha as his next Communications Director. Ellis, who spent the past 10 years as Assignment Manager at KMTV-TV in Omaha joined the Congressman's Office on October 9.

"I am really pleased to have Lisa join our staff. Lisa has a wealth of relationships from her past media experience and will be a strong addition to our staff," said Congressman Terry.

Ellis earned a bachelors degree in Broadcast Journalism with a minor in Political Science from the University of Nebraska at Kearney. Before working at KMTV-TV Ellis worked at KHGI-TV in Kearney, Nebraska and at KAWL/KTMX radio in York, Nebraska. Ellis will be based in the District Office in Omaha.

Also joining Congressman Terry's staff is Michael Brzica. Brzica joins the staff as a Legislative Counsel who will handle issues such as; defense, education and crime. He started on October 15th.

"Michael's legal background will be a huge asset to our staff. His legal experience will complement our strong legislative policy staff," said Congressman Lee Terry.

Brzica earned a bachelors degree and his Law Degree from Creighton University. Before coming to work for Congressman Terry, Brzica worked for Wirth Business Credit, the Douglas County Attorney's Office and the Sarpy County Attorney's Office. Brzica will be based in Congressman Terry's Washington, D.C. office
