

Oldest Member Of Easy Company Will Be Presented With Medals Monday

OMAHA, Neb. -- 93-year-old Ed Mauser is the oldest living member of Easy Company, the WWII unit featured in HBO's "Band of Brothers."

But, 65 years after his pursuits in Europe during the war, Mauser still has not received the medals he earned during the fighting.

On Monday, Congressman Lee Terry will present Mauser with those medals including Purple Hearts and at least one Bronze Star.

Mauser said he had given up hope about ever getting the medals but is grateful he will have them to pass on to his grandsons.

You can read more about the Veterans of Easy Company in World War II here: MenofEasyCompany.com

